

OCIETY will turn out en masse for the Bach. elors' Ball at Delmonico's next Tuesday evening. It will be one of the finest balls ever given in this city.
The floral decorations by Klunder will cost more than $5,000. The large room adjoining the ballroom will be turned into a conser-

Broad street broker and popular member of the Seventh Regiment, and Miss Camilla F. Lucre, youngest daughter of Mme. Camille Urso, the celebrated violinist, is announced. The marriage will take place in June.

Members of Monitor Lodge, Knights of Honor, No. 2,599, who are so industrious during the year strengthening their forces and doing general good among their fraternity, manage to get together at least once during the gay seaon and do themselves proud by giving a reception and ball.

Wendel's Assembly Room accommodated them last night. Prof. Carey was on hand with his band, and Floor Manager R. H. Munro and his wife seemed to be the right people in the right place as leader of the grand march.

During intermission a report that one of the members was to receive a severe caning caused no little excitement, and the policeman on post having heard it dropped in to see what was the matter. He arrived in time to see J. W. Roach presented with a handsomely engraved gold-headed cane with the compriments of the lodge. The only thing Mr. Roach could say in return was "have something on me," as he was considerably taken aback by the surprise. That he deserved the testimonial every one said, for he has been so successful in bringing new members into the lodge that it stands a good show of securing the $500 prize to be given by the Grand Lodge for the largest number of new converts. The following ladies and gentlemen were

The following isdies and gentlemen were present:

R. H. Munro, Chairman of the Committee of Arrangements, and Mrs. Munro, Assistant Floor Manager, and Mrs. T. J. Grimes, Mrs. A. Msterson, John Delaney, Miss A. Graf, C. Vix, Miss E. Vordenbaumen, Mr. and Mrs. G. Darcy, Miss Maggie Lyle, S. Kinenart, Dr. John Meiland, W. W. Beymout, John Seymout, Dr. John Aladori, Miss K. Florschutz, Alderman Chas. P. Sandford, Mr. and Mrs. A. Berger, George Dickneyer, Miss Martha Valentine, Miss Kate Hildebrand, Miss Veronica Roach, H. McGinn, Miss Mary Roach, Feitx McKenna, Mr. and Mrs. G. Fox, Mr. Scheckeler and daughters, Frank Ueltz, John Donahue, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Crowley, Bernard Reynolds, Miss kice, Frank Meyer, Jr., of Benevolent Lodge, K. of H.; H. G. Root, Treasurer of Monitor Lodge; D. G. Taggert, Mr. Leidig, S. C. Carney, Miss Mary Trevena, Charles Bitiner, Miss Emeine Trevena, W. D. Brown, E. C. Barnes, Charles Fisher, G. G. Thatcher, John Rochret, J. J. Doyle, B. McConnell, P. Crimmins, T. Johnston, C. G. Ledder, H. Johnson, P. C. McCormick, James Cawley and William Smullen.

SCHUCKLE-BERRI.

Miss Lilla C. Berri was married to Mr. Christian Schuckle, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Sarah E. Berri, of 448 West Twentieth street, last evening. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Andrew Fleming, ir., rector of St. John's Episcopal Church, Erie, Pa. The bride wore a gown of white satin, made with a full, square train, tablier embroidered in pearls. The corsage, which was V-shape, was filled in with duchesse lace. The veil was of tulle and white ostrich tips. Miss Shirley Carpenter, pf Roseville, N. J., was the maid of honor, Dr. W. J. Brockway acted as best man. The floral decorations of the house were on an extensive scale. Among others present were the following-named persons:

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene D. Berri, Mr. and Mrs. William Berri, of Brooklyn; Mr. and Mrs. C. Schnekle, Dr. J. W. Ranney, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Mann, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Karle, Mr. Maitus J. Newman, Miss M. Marsh, of Mount Vernon, N. Y.; Dr. C. H. Dressel, the Misses Cora and Du Belle Berri, slaters of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Fuller, Mr. J. M. Newman, Miss Cherry, Mr. Geo. Bowes, Mr. and Mrs. E. Carpenter, of Roseville, R. J.; Miss Herder, Mr. Marshall Wylman, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Brookway, Mr. Carlion Burton, Miss E. Carpenter, Mr. Jules Vancumpt, Miss Bowen, Mr. Earley, Miss Matthewson and Mr. Clarence Earle.

A NEW ASSOCIATION AT LYBIC HALL. Although the John H. McKeon Association has been in existence only a few months the members seem to know how to conduct a ball. They had one last night at Lyric Hall. Prof. A. F. McDonald, with his orchestra, came over from the east side to play, and the following guests danced to his music:

WINNIE'S FORTUNE.

it, with a curl of her lip, a toss of the head

HE handsome diningroom in the Mayberry mansion was all a-glitter with floods of gaslight and the genial glow of the fire-for Mr. Josiah Mayberry was a very "queer man," according to his wife's opinion, and this fancy of his to have nasty, ashy fires all over the splendid weather became cold enough was one of his eccentric freaks, Mrs. Mayberry called

LIGHT FEET TRIP A MEASURE.

MONITOR LODGE CELEBRATING THE GOOD

WORK OF THE YEAR.

An Evening Spent by Its Members in Dancing—Grand Army Men Invade Tammany Hall and the Drum Major of Farnham Post Gets a Balon—The John H. Mc.

Reen Association's First Ball.

Price, Jsa. J. Stewart, Miss Lizzie Tornee, John A. Dumphy, Miss R. Ryas, Frank Fox, Miss Annes Courad Badenhof, Miss Sophie Kraemer, Free Hasham, Miss Mamie Lugge, Feter F. Woods, Cass, Hills, F. J. Regan and daughter, George Fisher, Miss Agnes Linder, Recording Secretary Michael Fanning, Miss Rose Stewart, Jos. F. Keegan Miss Mamie Keegan, Jas. Corrigan and sister, George Effert, Mr. and Mrs. Robt, J. H. Wilson, Martin R. Dunts, Frank Elessing, George Weissensee, Adam Bickelnoupt, Moses Block, Richard Cristy, George Newbury, Louis Munstinger. Floor Manager Wm. F. Guerin Miss Lizzie Hafner and her brother, Fred.

Miss Lizzie Hafner and her brother, Fred.
W. Hafner, both members of the theatrical fife and drum corps attached to the Richard J. Christy Association, were also present. NOAH L. PARNHAM POST'S BAND BECEPTION.

NOAH L. PARNHAM POST'S BAND RECEPTION.

The second annual military concert and reception of the Noah L. Farnham Post Band, 458, G. A. R., took place last night at Tammany Hall. The place was crowded with Grand Army men in uniform.

Of course the boys had to give an exhibition before the veterans and presented with great effect "Recollections of the War."

"The Reveille," "To Horse," and "Dinner Call," and there was a great laugh from the old stagers when the "Surgeons" Call" was given, many of the "vets" rememering how they used toget off guard duty by reporting sick.

sick.
Just about midnight Drum Major Charles T. Krauss and his pretty wife were notified that they were wanted. To their suprise Mr. Krauss was presented with a handsome ivory baton tipped with gold. Mr. Krauss was so affected he could make no reply.

Among the many present were:

was so affected he could make no reply.

Among the many present were:

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. MacKee, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Preston, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Cavanagh, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Cavanagh, Mr. and Mrs. E. Krupp, Mr. and Mrs. J. Pierce, Mr. and Mrs. E. Krupp, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Funia, Mr. R. Litzenberg, F. Tortoni, Jr.; Ed. A. Kohlberger, A. K. La Rue, J. Vietze, William Sayers, L. Cohen, A. T. Bell, J. Friee, E. King Kendall, J. Wiesser, C. Frostler, William Frey, H. Fisher, C. Keller, F. Miduet, C. Costain, W. Thompson, A. T. Bell, C. Keller, the Misses McKee, Mrs. Banlair, Miss Kohlberger, Mrs. Kohlberger, Mss. Minnie Harmell, Mr. John McGuire, Mr. A. McCauley, Mr. Thompson, Mr. Keller, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll, Harry Bernhimer, Miss Florence Raymond, Miss Beatrice Sims, Otto Maigraf, Martin Keese, Mrs. Whitseld, Mr. Drake, Mrs. J. P. Webb, Mr. and Mrs. Sesman, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Laylen, Mr. and Mrs. John Farrell, William A. Thompson, M. Curley, Mr. and Mrs. John Hackett, Mr. and Mrs. John Bush, John Keuns, Mr. and Mrs. John Bush, John Keuns, Mr. and Mrs. James Hurley and Mr. and Mrs. John Booth.

THE WORLD will print to-morrow evening names of ladies receiving New Year's calls, if sent in by 10 A. M.

PASSING EVENTS IN SOCIETY.

Mrs. James R. Franklin will give a tea in Fet ruary.

The Authors Club will hold its fortnightly re inton on Saturday evening.

Mrs. J. J. Legrave, of 17 East Fifty-third street, will give a dance on Jan. 4. Mrs. Lockwood, of 45 East Fifty-third street, will give a dance on Friday evening. The annual ball of the British Legation at Washington will take place on Jan. 4. The marriage of Mr. J. D. Dint and Miss Helle

M. Day will take place on Jan. 17. Mrs. H. Biggan, of 188 West Seventy-second street, will give a dance on Jan. 5.

The engagement of Mr. Walter Phelps Douge and Miss Lily Stokes is announced. Mrs. H. C. Taylor, of 26 West street, will give a reception on Jan. 7.

Mrs. J. B. Wheeler, of 47 East Fifty-sevent street, will give a dinner on Jan. 2. Mrs. H. Naumberg, of 50 West Forty-eighth street, will give a dance on New Year's Eve. Mrs. Frothingham, of 61 West Seventy-third street, will give a young folks' party on Jan. 9.

Mrs. L. A. Meyers, of 1977 Madison avenue, will entertain a number of friends to-morrow evening. Mrs. T. H. Hall, of 58 East Seventy-fifth street. will entertain a number of friends on the evening of Jan. & | Mr. and Mrs. John Bigelow, of 21 Gramercy park, will pass the ensuing month in Washingto with their son, Lieut, Bigelow.

M . and Mrs. H. B. Plant, of 686 Fifth avenue, will leave the city early in January for the South, where they will pass the winter. Mrs. Henry Clews, of 9 West Thirty-fourth street, will give a dinner during the coming week in honor of Mr. and Mrs. John Munroe Mrs. E. M. Coles, of 118 West Forty-first street, will be assisted in receiving by her mother, Mrs. J. L. Townsend, at her "at home" on Jan. 5. A Bill in His Vost.

. Bromley, I've been going through my last winter's vests. "Find any bills in the pockets, Darringer ?" "Yes, one."
"Good. A fity-dollar bill, I hope."
"No; a bill for $19. 22."
"But there isn't a bill of that denomination."
"Oh, there isn't, ch? Bromley, it was a wash-

Its Exact Weight, [From the Pittsburg Chronicle.]

"Mr. Smith made quite a weighty speech in in troducing the speaker," remarked the Judge after the lecture.

'Not at all," replied the Major, "its weight was very small."

'How do you make that out?"

'It weighed merely announce."

Tollowing guests danced to his music:

President Martin W. Walsh and Mrs. Walsh, Michael Duff, Miss Annie Reynolds, P. McManus, Miss Tillie Schaefer, John J. Ryan, Miss Annie M. Keily, P. G. O'Haloran, Miss Rose Tinen, Lawrence Farley, Miss A. Clark, W. E. Streeter, Miss Martha Bischoff, J. Stephens, Miss Sarah Grant, George Clark, Miss Lizzie Brown, Jaz. M. Kelly, Miss Maggie Corbatt, Louis Stevens, Miss Carrie Stanley, P. M. Price, Mr. and Mrs. P. Dowd, Mr. and Mrs. John Grief, Tressurer and Mrs. Thos. F.

Asafe, sure cure for coughs and colds, Adamson's Botanicy, School, Tressurer and Mrs. Thos. F.

"I declare, Mr. Mayberry, it is too bad! I have gone over the list of invitations you have made, and to think there is not one—no not one—of our set among them, and such a horrid lot of people as you have named!"

Mr. Mayberry sipped his wins contentedly.

"I told you, didn't I, Marguerite, that it was my intention to give an old-fashioned dinner? And by that I meant, and mean, to whom it will, indeed, be cause for thankfulness. As to making a grand fuss, and seeing around our table only the people to whom a luxurious dinner is an every-day occurrence—I shall not do it. And as to the guests on my list being 'horrid' and 'common,' you are mistaken, my dear. None of them have a worse falling than poverty. There is not a 'common,' vulgar person among the ten names on that paper."

Mr. Mayberry's good old face lighted up warmly as he spoke, and Ernest Mayberry's handsome face reflected the satisfaction and pride he felt in his father's views.

Mrs. Mayberry flushed, but said nothing. She knew from experience that, kind and indulgent as her husband was, there were times when he suffered no appeal from his decision. And this was one of those times.

"We will have dinner ordered for 12 it, with a curl of her lip, a toss of the head and a smile, almost of contempt, directed at the hale, hearty, honest-faced old gentleman who had married her for her pretty face ten years ago, when he was an immensely rich widower, with his handsome half-grown son for a not undesirable encumbrance.

They were sitting around the handsome table, discussing their 7 o'clock dinner, with the solemn butler and his subordinate in silent, obsequious attention—these three Mayberrys, father, son and the haughty, well-dressed lady who was wearing a decided frown of displeasure on her faces a frown she had barely power to restrain from degenerating into a verbal expression of anger while the servants were in waiting, and willah; as the decision. And this was one of those times.

"We will have dinner ordered for 12 o'clock, as it used to be when I was a boy. We will have roast turkey with cranberry sauce, and mashed potatoes and turnips, boiled onions and celery, and all on the table at once. For dessert, pie, cheese and cider, and nothing more. Marguerite, shall I give for order to Lorton, or will you attend to it?" Mrs. Mayberry twisted her diamond rings almost roughly.

"Oh, don't ask me to give such an insane order to him. I have no wish to appear as a laughing stock before my servants, Mr. Mayberry. It will be as severe a strain on my endurance as I am capable of to be forced to sit at a table with such people as the Hurds and the Masons, and that Thyras Green and her lame brother, and that Illies old Wilmington and his granddaughter, and "When the solution of the same production of the same production."

Mrs. Mayberry twisted her diamond rings almost roughly.

We will have roast turkey with cranberry sauce, and mashed potatoes and turnips, boiled onions and celery, and all on the table at once. For dessert, pie, cheese and cider, and nothing more of the order to Lorton, or will you attend to it?"

Mrs. Mayberry twisted her diamond rings almost roughly.

We will have dinner oroare turkey with cranberry was con mashed po

AT WAR ABOUT A WOMAN.

POLITICIANS FIGHTING FOR A PETTY PLACE AT CASTLE GARDEN.

The Emigration Board Unable to Agree Upon an Assistant Matron-The Salary Only $30 a Month-Boss Platt's Finger Alleged to be in the Pie-Claims of the Candidates for the Appointment.

A bitter fight is in progress at Castle Garden over the appointment of an assistant matron to take the place of Mrs. Stricklen recently promoted to succeed the esteemed woman who for more than thirty years was matron, the late Mrs. Esslinger. The place is worth only $30 a month salary to the successful competitor, yet the influence of some political magnates and tricksters is being used to guide the action of the Commissioners.

The Board met yesterday for the purpose of disposing of the question. Three candidates are in the field-Mrs. Goodwin, Mrs. Sloper and Mrs. Waiman, the latter having been temporarily appointed by the Castle Garden committee. When the action of the committee came up for approval Mr. Stephenson violently opposed it on the ground that Mrs. Waiman was not an efficient linguist, speaking only German and a "broken English," as the venerable Commissioner termed it.

Then his collegue and abuttor in all his petty schemes to rule the Board, "Uncle' George Stair, arose and interposed his objections to the appointment. He took the ground that it was a waste of money to employ another matron. This made the other Commissioners chuckle with delight, for the genial Mr. Starr does not consider it an extravagant use of money when some of his friends draw big salaries for doing little or no work.

An animated discussion ensued. Commissioners Starr and Stephensen fought to have all names referred to the Civil Service Commission for examination as to the respective ability of the competing candidates. They were voted down. but still persisted in trying to carry their point.

Chairman Ulrich ruled their resolution out of order several times, and then they appealed from his decision, but they were ignomin-iously defeated.

Then they accepted Mr. Taintor's motion to refer the whole matter again to the consid-eration of the Castle Garden Committee.

eration of the Castle Garden Committee.

"It seems absurd that men of common sense should lay aside all the rules of parliamentary usages and indulge in a baby act policy to defeat the will of the Board," said one gentleman afterward, "by making so vigorous a fight for an unimportant position. The situation, however, is this: There is no unanimity among the Commissioners, and Mr. Stephenson, who prides himself on his oratorical, ability, tries to rule the whole Board.

joard.
"He is trying to infuse into the affairs of

"He is trying to infuse into the affairs of Castle Garden some of his antiquated Republican ideas. His candidate for the position is backed by Boss Platt and a host of other Republican lights, and he has pledged himself to have her appointed, notwithstanding the objections of the other Commissioners to be ruled by Republican bossism.

"He will, of course, be sustained by Mr. Stair. Unless the Commissioners who are opposing Mr. Stephenson and Mr. Stair in dragging politics into the appointment stand by their determination to reject all overtures from the Republican camp, through Tom Platt's lieutenants in the Board, it is likely that Mrs. Goodwin, the linguist, who appears to have a big political pull, will receive the coveted position."

The claims of Mrs. Sloper, who comes to the Commissioners with an excellent recommissioners with an excellent recommissioners.

The claims of Mrs. Sloper, who comes to the Commissioners with an excellent recommendation from Eugene Kelly, strengthened by a very flattering indorsement from Collector Magone, are receiving little attention because of the political affiliations of the majority of the Board.

Foor Mrs. Waiman has no politicians to look after her interests. She is an unassuming woman, and one of more than ordinary intelligence. Her ability for the position is not questioned, and her efforts to maintain a family by her own exertions have won for not questioned, and her efforts to manual family by her own exertions have won for her the sympathy of some of the Commissioners, who have laid aside all political considers, who have laid aside all political considers.

[From the St. Louis Republican.] Hon. Chauncey M. Depew's innocent that "the Puritan believed that the incense of music was only grateful to God when it came through the nose, "arouses warm indignation as "a lying invention which never had any color of truth." It is very certain that the most celebrated Puritan now living, Hon. John L. Suilivan, of Boston, does not sing through his nose. It seems that Mr. Depew has gone ahead once more without being sure he was right.

A Shrowd Maiden. [From the Binghamton Republican.] George-My dear, what would you do if I were to leave you forever and not realize the bright future o'er which we have dreamed so oft?

Clytic (reflectively)—Let_me—see—it has been so long since anything of the kind happened to me that I have almost forgotten. I think the first step is to serve a complaint with bill of particulars alleging damages in five thou—

But George had clasped her raptuously to his becam. How Adam Fell. [Prom the Louisville Courier-Journal.]

The banana is much more an antiquity than the chestnut, yet the chestnut is allowed a place in the language as the mark of great age. The belief that when Adam fell he slipped on a banana paring is accepted by quite a number of thoughtful per-sons, and if it is correct the chestnut should go. ABOUT PLAYS AND PLAYERS.

John F. Donnelly announces "twenty first-class artists" for his popular concert at Steinway Hall next Sanday.

The Camno company is making a great deal of money on the road with "Erminia." The re-celpts are very large, and the "Erminia" mine seems to be inexhaustible. When the opera comes again to this city the present Casino company will go "on the road, " commencing in Chicago. Miss Lillian Grubb, Courtice Pounds and James Powers will go with it.

" The Highest Bidder," which has just finished an engagement in Chicago, has already arranged for a subsequent visit to that city next year. Mr. Sothern's tour will be confined entirely to the large cities, making long stays at each point. The "one night stands" will be avoided. This policy will carried out as much as possible with the other Lyceum attractions.

Mr. Richard Mansdeld enjoys the weed and his company made him a Christmas offering of a 'humiditor," a new receptacle for cigars. It is of costly woods, bound with gold, lined with solid sliver and appropriately inscribed. Mr. Mansfield assembled his company beneath the branches of the Christmas tree at the Victoria Hotel the other evening and gave every one a gift.

Ted Marks is the name of the gentleman who is to manage the business of the "Faust" burlesque, which A. S. Phillips is to star. Mr. Marke's present claims on public attention seem to be a remark able overcoat which he wears. This garment looks like a railway rug greased, and is fearfully wonderful. Mr. Marks in the street attracts a great deal of attention. Perhaps he likes it.

The souvenirs for the hundredth performance of 'The Henrietta," at the Union Square Theatre tomorrow afternoon are exquisite[productions worthy of a place in a drawing collection. It is a portfolio containing eight handsome reproductions, four of which are of scenes in "The Henrietta," three of scenes from Shakesperian comedies, and one of the stage picture in "She Stoops to Conquer."

" Heart of Hearts" is to be the next play at the Madison Square Theatre, and work on it has al-ready been commenced. Louis Aldrica claims that he has a play covering much the same situations as 'Heart of Hearts," and he is anxious to produce it in this city. Mr. Alurich is a good character actor, and he is well known in this city. He says his play is also Engitsh, and that its author is at present fighting the author of "Heart of Hearts" on the question of originality. This is pleasant to hear. As long as the controversy is confined to the English metropolis let them go on fighting.

It is probable that the adaptation of the French L'Abbé Constantin" will be prepared very shortly for presentation at Wallack's Theatre. The young man who is doing the work is trying to model the parts as much as possible to fit the cor pany, which is so thoroughly excellent that it ought to be seen to advantage, a privilege it has not yet had. Mr. Abbey has undoubtedly the most expensive stock company in the world, and yet throughout the season several of its members have been walking the streets doing nothing but drawing their salary. Those who have appeared have no been able to do themselves justice. It is expected that "L'Abbe Constantin" will be very successful. It is said to be an extremely strong play and made a decided hit in Paris.

TOO COLD FOR SOME TOBOGGANERS. But Those Who Visited Pleatwood Park

Yesterday Were Well Repaid. There was fine ice for both tobogganing and admirers of those athletic and exhibitaring sports were not out in force. They prefer warmer weather for winter recreations. The wind was somewhat sharp, but the toboggan slide was in such excellent condition that those who took advantage thereof were well repaid. In the afternoon there was a very liberal attendance, and even at night several hundred ladies and gentlemen ventured out and did not appear to regret having done so. One young lady was so infatnated with the dash down the inclines that she made six round trips without even suggesting refreshments to her casort.

The managers are taking advantage of the cold snap to perfect the coat of ice on the slides, and to-day visitors will probably find them as near perfection as can be attained. The skating pond is as smooth as glass, and every other feature is now completed except the race-track, from which all of the anow has been blown, necessitating a post-ponement of the races. There is a band on hand every evening and Wednesday and Saturday afternoons, and the grand stand has been inclosed and those who do not wish to brave the weather outside can induige in dancing or sit by the fires.

Secretary Chamberiain says no trouble or expense will be spared to contribute to the rational pense will be spared to contribute to the rational enjoyment of all who visit the park and conduct themselves properly, but not the slightest intima-tion of rowdyism will be tolerated, as the stock-holders are determined to maintain it at all times as a piace where, any lady can feel secure from an-noyance. Every precaution possible has been taken to guard against accidents, and the prospects for a successful season are excellent, notwithstanding the heavy expense entailed by building the slides and other features.

More Than Two Centuries Old.

[From the Jewelers' Weekly.! A venerable clock is in the possession of H. R. Hamer, of North Adams, Mass. Mr. Hamer's grandfather recently sent it to him from Wales, where for more than 200 years it has told the hour fully eight feet high and the English oak, of which fully eight feet high and the English oak, of which the case is made, is in an excellent state of preservation. The bell upon which the hammer strikes the hours is large and of a remarkably clear and sweet tone, and the dial plate of brass is ornamented with various scrolis. The ancient time measurer still ticks caimly away, although it was looked upon as a highly orized relic when its present possessor's grandfather, now ninety years of age, was but an infant. The old gentleman in sending the clock to his grandson accompanied it with the following bit of verse, evidently of his own creation:

Here I labor with my might To tell you the hours, day and night. Do thou a lesson learn from me, And serve thy God as I serve thee,

SPORTS OF TRACK AND RING.

PIGHTERS' HANDS GENERALLY THE FIRST TO GIVE WAY.

Broken Bone That Came Near Stopping John L. Sullivan's Sporting Carrer Western Jack Dempsey Puts Up $500-The Pastime Athletic Club's Boxing Competitions-About Prize-Ring Rules, 2

> HE casual observer thinks with pity of the black eyes and bloody noses and body punch. es chronicled in reports of prize-fights. He never dreams what the fighter really most 'dreads; what will cause him the intensest pain and lay him up perhaps for months—the injuries to his hands. There is no hard-hitting pugilist whose hands are not twisted or deformed. Jack Fogarty, after a successful knocking-out tour of the eastern part of the country under Gus Tuthill eighteen months ago, had to carry his hands around strapped in boards in what looked like miniature cradles. It took him months to get them right again. Dempsey has repeatedly suffered from injuries to his maulers. John L. Sullivan, who wound up his exploits by breaking his arm over Patsy Cardiff's head within three weeks of just a year ago, knocked his up so often he thought of giving up the business. Sullivan sent up one of the small bones in the back of his one of the small bones in the back of his hand so badly once that it protruded through the skin after the boxing-glove was pulled off. He said he couldn't cure it for a long time, but at last tried an old woman remedy, with success. He bound a silver dollar over the bunch where the bone was growing together, and it was smoothly and firmly knit together almost before he knew it. Jack Burgess, who is training to fight Geo. Aggett, of Canada, in February, has been troubled with injured fingers, and will to-day submit to an operation by a first-class surgeon which will probably bring into subjection the last of the rebellious members, a twisted little finger of the left hand.

Lack of enough members present to contack of enough members present to constitute a quorum caused a postponement of the National Amateur Skating Association's meeting yesterday afternoon. If this sort of weather holds there ought to be no question of where to hold the championships on account of want of ice.

The Western namesake of the middle-weight champion, Jack Dempsey, does not propose to let grass grow under him while he seeks a natch. He offers to meet any 128-pound man for $500 a side and an added purse or ticket money, or he will fight Dacey at 130 pounds. This Dempsey seems a quiet, gentlemanly young fellow, like the Williams-burg hero, and he speaks very modestly of his abilities. He looks like a fighter.

The boxing competitions of the Pastime Athletic Club at 115 pounds, 135 pounds and 145 pounds, which are to come off at Parepa Hall on Jan. 28, promise to be very successful. Billy Robertson's rules will govern and the entries remain open until Jan. 21 with Secretary Boyle at 1171 Second avenue. The medals are now on exhibition at Spalding's, on Broadway.

Billy Edwards was at Fleetwood tobog-

So many people have spoken of the possible men that are to face Sullivan, and Dempsey's name has come up so often it would seem interesting to give the Nonpareil's opinion of it. Dempsey says he doesn't think he would have a ghost of a chance with the "big fellow." It will be remembered that there was talk once of bringing them together force air round content. membered that there was talk once of bringing them together for a six-round contest.
In a discussion last night one expert said:
"You can talk as much as you like about Sullivan's rushing himself out in no time, and that he would be a different man under the new rules of the London prize ring, but I don't see it. Sullivan does fight himself out in short order. I'll admit that.
But who is there, who gets in front of him, that it is freety out together it. that isn't fought out before he is? Talk about your ring rules. They are just the ones for a man who tires quickly. Why, when you feel a bit tired all you have to do it to clinch a man, fib a little, then slip down and the two seconds carry you to your corner and you are allowed thirty seconds rest. Queensberry rules, if you go down, the time for rest, ten seconds is infinitesimal. You've got to keep right on fighting till three minutes are up, tired or not tired.

Prepared for Anything.

[From the Section Transcript.]
Lady Monckton tells a good story of a performance at which an amateur actress was asked by a professional: "Will it upset you, do you think, if you find the door in a different position from that we have used in rehearsal?" 'Not in the least," said she; 'I don't suppose it will usest me as much as it will you, for I am accustomed never to find anything where I had expected it. That's my amateur training, you know."

No Need of Worrying. [From the New Orleans Picayune.]
Prof. Proctor, who knows very little about it, says the world has but a few thousand years longer to live. That is of no importance whatever. By the end of that time there will be any number of smart Americans able to create new worlds.

beautiful eyes enough to excuse the boy for admiring her."

"The boy. You seem to have forgotten your son is twenty-three—old enough to fall in love with and marry even a poor, unknown

HOLIDAY NOVELTIES.

A pretty scarf-pin is a fish of varied colored enamel, with garnet eyes. A running shoe of white enamel with a sole and spikes of gold is of recent design in scarf pins. Link cuff-bottons of smoked pearl traced with fine threads of white enamel are attractive.

A shepherd's reed of gold, in the centre of which rests a moonstone head, is an oddity in scarf-pins. Knot rings of platinum and bright red and yellow rold wires, set with small diamonds, are fashionsbie for gentlemen. An attractive scarf-pin recently designed consists of a coil of golden ropes hanging on the barb of a silver harpoon. The most fashionable necklaces set close to the neck, and are generally composed of pearls or dia monds, or a combination of both. In pungents a handsome design is in the shape of a dagger, the case and handle of which are allver ornamented with enamel flowers. A handsome brooch is a golden fan, the ribs o which are set with diamonds and turquoise. A small gold chain is attached to the fan. A large yellow pansy of enamel with a centre of purple is among the handsomest of procedes. Dia-monds are sometimes set in the centre of the flower, though the plain designs are most favored on account of their natural appearance. One of the handsomest coffee-pots recently seen was made in imitation of an ancient piece of silver now in the Kremiin Museum at Moscow. The pot s satin-finished sliver and worked in imitation of brocade. The original is composed of gold threads woven on parchment. A povel cigar-box is made of Russian silver, and s in the shape of a Russian's country dwelling. The eaves, window trimmings and roof are gilded while the base on which the ministure house stands is of exidized silver. One side of the house opens and serves as a receptacle for the cigars, while the various caves do duty as match-boxes and ashreceivers.

An Old Story.

[From the Norristown Herald.]
The man who plants a tree to raise wood for his own coffin has just died at Akron, O., three years after the tree was cut down. It is Akronological fact that this man has died somewhere annually during the past quarter of a century at least. Hereafter the tree planted should be a "chestnut."

Keeping Within the I.nw. [From the Omaka World.]
First Thief—Hello, Blii, still burgiarin'? Second Thief-No, I've found something safer than that.
"Ea 7 What yer doin' now 7"
"Runnin' a railroad restaurant,"

AMUSEMENTS.

H. R. JACOBS'S 3D AVE. THEATRE MAT. EVERY MONDAY, WEDNESS DAY AND SATURDAY. 20c., 30c., FUN ON THE BRISTOL. JAN. 2.—KIMBALL COMEDY CO. 50c.,

TOBOGGANING

at the POLO GROUNDS.

Grand winter sport. Afternoon session from 2 to 5; evening session from 7 to 10,30. Toboggans to let on the grounds. Admission 25c.

EDEN MUSKE, 23D ST., BET. 5TH & 6TH AVES.

Part Groups. New Paintings. New Attractions.

ER and his HUNGARIAN ORCHESTRA.

Concerts from 3 to 5 and 3 to 11.

Admission to all, 50 cents, schildren 25 cents.

AJEEB—The Myetifying Chess Automaton. 14 TH ST. THEATRE, OR., 6TH AVE.

Matiness Wednesday and Saturday.

The World-Famed Artists,

THE HANLONS,

in their great farcical absurdity, the new

VOYAGE EN SUINSE.

Remodelled, reconstructed, funnist tian ever.

Gallery, 25c. Reserved, 35c., 50c., 75c., $1.00, $1.50.

Casino.
Evenings at 8. Matines, Saturday at 2.
THE JOILLEST OF ALL COMIC OPERAS,
MADEJON. Received with continuous laughter and applause,
JOURNAL—A booming success. Full of comedy
ADMISSION, 50c. Seats secured a month ab STAR THRATRE. MIGHTY DOLLAR.
Evenings at 8. MIGHTY DOLLAR.
Evenings at 8. MIGHTY DOLLAR.
Malines Saturday at 2.
THE MIGHTY DOLLAR.
Saturday Evening DOMBKY AND SON.
Monday, Jan. 2. HEDWIG NIEMANN RAABE.
Seats now on sale.

DOCKSTADER'S MINSTREIS.
29th st. and Broadway. Nightly, 8.30, Sat. Mat., 2.30, "HENRISTTA, an Ethippian afterpiece." MODERN MOTHER GOOSE." Toys and Caudies Nightly.

POOLE'S THEATER, Sto st., bet. B'wy and 4th ave.
The Great Local Drama, by K. E. Price, esq.,
ONE OF THE BRAVEST.

10c., 20c., 30c., 50c., Mats. Mon. Wed., Thur., Sat.
Introducing JACK DEMPSEY and BILLY MADDEN, 5 TH AVENUE THEATRE. 8.30
Proprietor and Manager... Mr. John Stetson
TO-NIGHT AT 8.30 AND MATINEE SATURDAY,

DR. JEKYLL AND MR. HYDE. WALLACK'S.

Mat.Sat. 2.15
Characters by Messrs. Osmond
Toscie, Ehen Plympton, Harry Edwards, R. D. Ward. Miss Hose
Coghian, Miss Netta Guion, Miss
Lilla Vane and Mrs. Abbey. A CADRMY OF MUSIC.
Gilmore & Tompkina,
Props. & Managors.

Hall Vanie and Advence
BOOTH in BARRETT
JULIUS CASAR.
Rvory Night. Saturday Matines.

BUOU RICE'S BURLESQUE COMPANY
HOUSE.
THE GORGEOUS PRODUCTION OF
THE CORNAIR.
MATINER Wednesday and Seturday at 2. TONY PASTOR'S THEATRE.

A grand Holiday show all this week.

Andy and Aunie Hughes. Herr Pitrot, Woodsen and Bennett, Max Pettingill, Luigi Dell Oro,

Ashley and Hess.

LYGEUM THRATRE. THE WIFE. THE ANUAL BALL of P. Ryan Association takes NIBLO'S.

Reserved seats, Orchestra Circle and Balcony, 50a.

Grand Production of the Great

MAGNIFICENT SCENERY AND COSTUMES.

Mailiness Wednesday and Saturday at 2.

Extra Matines Jan. 2. New Year's Day. RAND OPERA-HOUSE,

Wed. NAT. C. GOODWIN
MAIL
MAIL TURNED UP and LEND ME FIVE SHILLINGS
Next week-GUS WILLIAMS.
Next Sunday PROF. CROMWELL'S
Best Lecture—PARIS, THE MAGNIFICENT CITY.

friend.

'I'm glad to see you, Wilmington. Sit dow. The sight of a man who has not come to reproach me is a comfort."

But Mr. Wilmington did not sit down.

He crossed the room to the table at which Mr. Mayberry sat among a hopeless array of papers. He crossed the room to the table at which Mr. Mayberry sat among a hopeless array of papers.

'There is no use wasting words, Mayberry, at a time like this. Did you know your son has asked my Winnis to marry him?"

Mr. Mayberry's tace lighted a second, then the close of the command of the close of the command.

"I my son had a fortune at his command.

as I thought he had yesterday at this time, I

KASKINE It Has All THE POWER OF QUININE with none ITS POISON.

A POWERFUL TONIC A SPECIFIC FOR MALARIA. RHEUMATISM. NERVOUS PROSTRATION and all Germ Diseases.

THE MONT SCIENTIFIC AND SUCCESSFUL.

BLOOD PURIFIER. Superior to quintos. HHE MONT SCHENTIFIC AND SUCCESSFUL BLOOD PURIFIES. Superior to quintus.

"I am a mason and builder, and contrasted maleria, while engaged on some work in the contrasted maleria, while engaged on some work in the track quintum until it esemed to me the medicine was worse than the disease, tong gave myself up as a hopsiss, case. Proving the tribute of the superior case. Proving the tribute of the superior case. Proving the tribute of the superior case. If you care to publish what I say you have my frequency to the superior consent to do it."—Patrick Whelam, 199th st. and Southern Houlevard, New York.

Our agents will refund the money you pay for Kaskins in case no benefit is derived from its use.

Kaskins can be taken without any special medical advice. $1.00 per bottle, or six bottles for $5.00. Beds by all druggists or sent by mail on receipt of price.

KASKINK CO., 54 Warren st., New York.

The Only Polisher OF THE TEETH.

well-known actor. Mr. Stewart Robson, kindly the trouble to write: • FRI.T TOOTH BRUSH" is a great suc-it appears to possess qualities above all others experience. HORSEY MFG CO Utles, N. Y.

> AMUSEMENTS. GETTYSBURG BY

PHILIPPOTEAUX. TRUE TO NATURE AND HISTORY

4TH AVE. AND 19TH ST., one block north of Union Square.

IN ALL RESPECTS.

OPEN DAY AND EVENING.

MADISON SQUARE THEATRE.

SATURDAY MATINEE AT 2.

MONDAY, JAN. 2.

ELAINE.

MUNDAI, ORR. 4.

MR. PALMER

SEVEN WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON CONCERVE.
Commencing Jan. 4, at 3, commissing of concerted and solo numbers by the MADISON SQUARE CONCERVE.
COMPANY: IMOGEN BROWN, soprano, LEGIS
MACNICHOL, contraho; C. C. PERGUSON, LOCAL FRANCIS WALKER, baseo, LAURA SEDOWOCK.
COLLINS, reciter; W. R. TAYLOR, director.
Sing et textes, 2 course tickets, 7 concerts, 26. The latter now on sale at the box office of the theater. ROBBINS! ROBBINS!

I I CIRCUS IN MIDWINTER III O! the musical dancing elements.

A strent THE WORLD calls "Nest, front and unique."

O! the wonderful barebock ridge.

A circus the Fribure calls "Full of attractions."

O! the girls in their mid-six marvels.

A circus the fish on a is "Bright and constantly clean."

Bicangerie. Misseum and Circus Combined.

Twice ada, 2 P. M. and 8 P. M.

All seats reserved. Prices, 25 and 50 etc. Box costs. $1.

All seats reserved. Prices, 25 and 50 ets. Box seats, $1.

CTANDARD THEATRE.—BROADWAY A 33D ST.

Scale of Prices.—Orchestre, $1,50; Orchestre Opeles

1.50 and $1; Balcony, $1.50; Balcony Girals, $1; The St.

Ity Circle, 50c, and $5; Balcony, $1.50; Balcony Girals, $1; The St.

Every resuling at 8. Matines, Saturday at 2.

CHAND PROPUCTION

Under the management of Frank W. Banger, of the Proturesque Deams

PAUL KAUVAR; Or, ANARCHY.

By Stesie Mackaye.

"The play is an admirably ingenious construction."

Evening World.

HOLIDAY MATINEE, MONDAY, JAN. 2.
Seats secured two weeks in advance. METROPOLITAN OPERA-HOUSE.
METROPOLITAN OPERA-HOUSE.
MICHAENTAN OPERA-HOUSE.
MICHAENTAN OPERA-HOUSE.
BATURDAY EVENING, DEC. 31, 8,15.
JONEY HOPMANN,
accompanied by Mine. HELENE HANTRETTER.
Prima Donna Contraito; Thee. Bjortsten, Tenor; Blance
De Ania, Baritone; Miss Nettie Carpenter; Mine. Bacconi, Harpist; Signor R. Sapplo, Accompanies, and Adolph Neuendorf's Grand Orchestes. Weber Grand Plano used.

SPECIAL. **

LAST EVENING HOFMANN CONCERT,

TUESDAY EVENING, JAN. 3, 8, 18, to of seats begins Saturday, Dec. 31, at 9 A. M. Union square theatre.

ROBSON and CRANK. BRONSON HOWARD'S GREAT COMED'S THE HENRIETTA. Every evening at 8. Saturday Matines.

Extra holiday matines Jan. 2.

100th performance Saturday Matines, Dec. 31.

Elaborate Souvenire.

Elaborate Souvenire.

HARRIGAN'S PARK THEATRE.

E. W. HANDER HARRIGAN.

M. HANDER HARRIGAN.

MINANIMOUS SUCCESSION OF

MINANIMOUS SUCCESSION OF

Artistic and Natural Character Acting of PETER.

DAVE BRAHAM and his POPULAR OROHESTRA
GRAND HOLIDAY MATINEE MONDAY, JAN. 1.

A RUN OF LUCK."

NAT. C. GOODWIN

"Until an hour ago I thought this would be the proudest, happiest hour of my life, if, for I should have asked you to give me I winner for my wife. Instead, I must be content to only tell you how dearly I love her, and how patiently and hard I will work for her to give her the home which she deserves—because, fir. Vilmington, this morning the house of Mayberry & Thurston failed, and both families are beggars."

His handsome face was pale, but his eyes were bright with a determination and braveness mothing could daunt.

Winne smiled back upon him, her own cheeks paling.

"Never mind, Ernest, on my account. I can wait, too."

Good. Neither do I care for myself, but from white the day she mannature and a quizzieal look was on his shrewd old face as he listened.

"Gone up, ch? Well. that's too bad. You stay here and tell Winnie I am just as willing she shall be your wife when you want her, as if nothing had happened because I believe you can earn bread and butter for both of you, and my Winnie is a contented little girl. I'll hobble up to the office and see your of sympathy won't come amiss from me."

And off he strode, leaving the lovers alone, with rigid face and keen, troubled eyes that mevertheless lighted at the sight of his old friend.

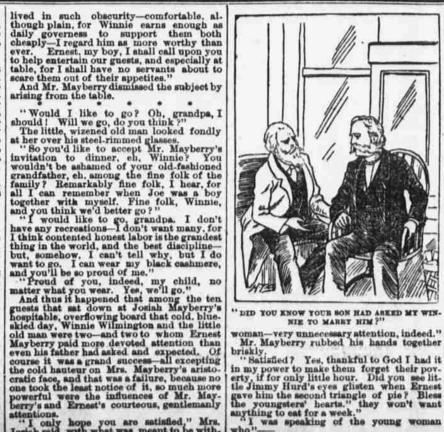

"The glad to see you, Wilmisgton. Signey and the strode, where Mr. Mayberry & Thurston's private office, where Mr. Mayberry & Thurston's private office, where Mr. Mayberry & Thurston's private office, where Mr. Mayberry stat alone, with rigid face and keen, troubled eyes that nevertheless lighted at the sight of his old friend.

"The glad to see you, Wilmisgton. Signey and will be shaded hand on it and call it abargain ?"

Mr. Mayberry took the little dried-up hand thick with emotion.

"Wilmington winked away a suspicious moisture on his evalues of money before she had the handing of her fortune. She has no idea she san nevertheless lighted at the sight of his old friend.

"The glad to see you, Wilmisgton. Signey and will be a charitable Christian gentleman, and between us we' briskly.

"Batisfied? Yes, thankful to God I had it

She did not take unbrage at the sharp question.

She did not take unbrage at the sharp question.

"I am at least sure it is not my money he is after, grandpa," she returned, laughing and patting his cheek.

"I was speaking of the young woman who"—

"I was the "young man himself." Ernest Mayberry with a shadow of deep trouble and distression his fage as he came, straight up to Winnie and took her hand, then turned to the old gentleman.

attentions.

"I only hope you are satisfied," Mrs. Josiah said, with what was meant to be withering sarcasm, after the last guest had gone, and the troop are satisfied—particularly with the attention Ernest paid to that young your son is twenty-three—old enough to fall in love with and marry even a poor, unknown girl you were quixotic enough to invite to your table."

"Twenty-three? So he is. And if he wants to marry a beggar, and she is a good virtuous girl—why not?"

A little gasp of horror and dismay was the only answer of which Mrs. Mayberry was capable.

"Grandua!"

Winnie for my wife. Instead, I must be content to only tell you how dearly I love her. and how patiently sud hard I will work for her to give her the home which she deserves—because, Mr. Wilmington, this morning the house of Mayberry & Thurston failed, and both families are beggars."

His handsome face was pale, but his eyes were bright with a determination and braveness nothing could daunt.

Winnie for my wife. Instead, I must be content to only tell you how dearly I love her. and how patiently sud hard I will work for her to give her the home which she deserves—because, Mr. Wilmington, this morning the house of Mayberry & Thurston failed, and both families are beggars."

His handsome face was pale, but his eyes were bright with a determination and braveness nothing could daunt.

Winnie for my wife. Instead, I must be content to only tell you how dearly I love her. and how patiently sud hard I will work for her to give her the home which she serves—because, Mr. Wilmington, this morning the house of Mayberry & Thurston failed, and both families are beggars."

His handsome face was pale, but his eyes were bright with a determination and braveness nothing could daunt.

Winnie for my wife. Instead, I must be content to only tell you her to give her the home which she deserves—because, Mr. Wilmington, this morning the house of Mayberry & Thurston failed, and both families are beggars." capable. apable,
"Grandpa!"

He reached up his hand and caressed the other one.

"Yes, I can tell, dear. Ernest has shown his uncommon good sense by wanting you for his wife. So this is what come of that dinner, eh. Winnie?"

"And may I tell him you are willing, perfectly willing, grandpa? Because I do love him, you know."

"And you are sure it isn't his money you are after, eh?"

She did not take 'nmbrage at the sharp question.

Winnie's voice was so low that Mr. Wil-mington only just heard it, and when he looked up he saw the girl's crimson cheeks and her lovely, drooping face.

"Yes, Winnie. You want to tell me some-thing?"

She went up behind him and leaned her hot cheek caressingly assignt his

She went up behind him and leaned her hot cheek caressingly against his, her sweet, low voice whispering her answer:

"Grandpa, I want to tell you something, I—Mr. May—we—Ernest has asked—he wants me to—oh, grandpa, san't you tell what it is?"

He felt her cheek grow hotter against his, He reached up his hand and caressed the other one.